

Preceptor Employment Information – New Applicants

Eligibility Requirements

In order to apply for a preceptor position, you must:

- 1) Currently be a full-time student at Truman,
- 2) Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 at the time of your application, and
- 3) Preferable but not mandatory, must have a current driver's license and have a good driving record.

Preceptors are expected to be supportive of the University goals, responsible, enjoy working with high-ability teenage students, and be high-energy individuals. The application process consists of two parts.

Part I -- Application Materials

- 1) You should prepare a letter of interest which should include the skills you possess that will assist you when working with 13–15-year-old high-achieving students, your related work experiences and why you are interested in the Joseph Baldwin Academy,
- 2) Complete the online application, providing us with the letter of interest and your current resume, and
- 3) On the application you will be asked for a current faculty member that we may send a Google Form to for a recommendation of your ability.

Part II – Interview

The second part of the application process is an interview with the Director of JBA, and the Dean of the Joseph Baldwin Academy. During the twenty-minute interview, you will be asked, among other things:

- ✚ what you can contribute to the Academy,
- ✚ what you might gain from the Academy,
- ✚ your reaction to scenarios that might occur as part of your work with the Academy, and
- ✚ what skills you have for the course you are interested in precepting for.

Within a few weeks of the interview, we will notify you of the decision regarding your employment with JBA by email. Please be sure to contact us if you have not heard back within a few weeks to ensure the email was not lost, went to your spam, etc. We will reach out about the position whether it is to offer employment or let you know we cannot offer you a position at this time.

For further information about the Academy, visit our website at <http://jba.truman.edu>. If you have any questions about the application process or employment, feel free to contact us 660-785-5384 or via email: jba@truman.edu

Preceptor Job Description

BEFORE THE ACADEMY

- 1) All Preceptors (returning & new) are required to view/virtually attend orientations provided.
- 2) Participate in an intensive required training session once you move into Ryle for your session.
- 3) All Preceptors that have a license and are willing to transport students in University vehicles are required to complete van training with the Department of Public Safety on campus.
- 4) All Preceptors are required to attend CPR/AED & First Aid training prior to arrival for your session. Dates are scheduled in the spring for training that are paid directly by our office. If you cannot attend any of these sessions, you will need to obtain certification prior to your session (reimbursement available).
- 5) Complete a background check - You will receive an email from HR that provides the information of who will be contacting you for this required process to be completed.

All requirements must be completed by the deadlines for employment.

DURING THE ACADEMY -

Resident Counselor

- Encourage faculty, staff, and student interaction.
- Serve as a role model for students.
- Develop close ties with students in your area.
- Be a resource person for students.
- Be alert to problems students may reveal.
- Enforce curfews/lights out and Academy regulations.

Classroom

- Assist faculty members with instruction each day.
- Assist faculty in providing classroom management.
- Oversee student work during study hall.

After the Academy

- Session I: responsible for cleaning up and preparing materials for Session II.
- Session II will be responsible for cleaning/packing up and storing of all materials.

Staff

- Attend daily staff meetings.
- Work together with other staff members for the benefit of the students.
- Preceptors, in teams or individually, lead an activity each evening.
- Seek student input for ideas and development of activities to be offered.
- Operate university vehicles as necessary (if licensed and trained)
- Assist students during the first two days of orientation.
- Document any challenges for students to help them be successful.
- Assist with transportation to/from Kirksville airport.
- The Director and Dean may assign additional duties during the Academy.
- Preceptors report to the Directors and ultimately the Dean of the Academies.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Preceptors live with students in the residence hall.
- As of 2024 the preceptor salary is $2100 per session plus room and board (this equates to a package of approximately $3,450 for salary plus the cost of room and board).
- Nights off will be scheduled for preceptors during the Academy, however we ask that you sleep in your assigned room.
- Being a JBA staff member is a 24 hour-a-day commitment. Preceptors may not be enrolled in summer classes during the Academy or allowed to leave during JBA for weddings or any other family events except for an extreme situation – (only the Dean may make exceptions). Even at night, when students are asleep, they will be expected to conduct themselves professionally and be prepared to respond to crises on demand. rare exceptions may be made on a case by case basis by the Dean.*
- JBA preceptors are representatives of Truman State University and are expected to act in a manner befitting this responsibility, even when not directly interacting with students. This includes adherence to all applicable policies of the university, laws of the local, state, and federal government, as well as the exercise of common sense and good judgment.
 - Employees will be expected to refrain from making statements or engaging in activities which are inappropriate for children as determined by the University / JBA Offices,
 - Would violate university policies of sexual harassment and anti-discrimination, or
 - Would in any way serve to make an Academy participant or other staff member feel excluded from participation in all aspects of the Academy experience.
- The Joseph Baldwin Academy is meant to be an engaging learning experience that encourages open minds, honest debate over controversial issues, and free expression. As an essential element to encouraging free expression is fostering a non-coercive environment with respect to issues of politics, religion, identity, etc., therefore:
 - JBA students and staff are provided the opportunity to attend the religious services of their choice,
 - May find the opportunity to express their political views in class discussions or organized political debates or forums, and
 - Are encouraged to have open, honest and respectful dialog throughout the three-week learning experience.
- However, JBA is not an appropriate forum for employees to actively advocate acceptance of, or adherence to, their personal, religious or political viewpoint – regardless of the perspective from which it comes.
 - An important element of the JBA experience is student self-discovery.
 - Employees who cannot maintain an appropriate level of neutrality with respect to these issues during their period of employment should not apply for this position.
